Numb. 488

Tuesday, November 9 1703

By his Excellency Joseph Dudley Esq; Captain General and Governour in Chief, in and over Her Majesty's Provinces of the Massachusetts-Bay and New-Hampshire in New-England in America, and Vice-Admiral of the same. A Declaration against the Pennicooke and Eastern Indians.

Whereas notwithstanding the Obligations laid upon the Pennicooke and Eastern Indians, by Her Majesty's Government here establish'd; In the constant Friendship and good Treatment which on all Occasions they have manifested to, and receiv'd them with; And the Care and Cost laid out for their Protection, Supply and Support; the said Indians, contrary to their free Submissions, solemn Promises and Stripulations from time to time repeated and lately renewed, of a steady Adherence to Her Majesty's Interests, and with the greatest and last Perfidy and Ingratitude: Have treacherously Combined with Her Majesty's Enemies the French, appear'd in open actual Hostilities, and committed sundry Outrages, cruel and inhumane Barbarities, Murders, Rapines and Spoils upon Her Majesty's good Subjects, and their Estates, surprized and led away many of them Captive, without the least Provocation given, or pretended: And whilst they were entertained with all Kindness, in confidence of their Friendship.

I Do therefore, by and with the Advice of Her Majesty's Council, Declare the said Indians of Pennicooke and of the Eastern Parts of this Province, with their Confederates, to be Rebels and Enemies against Our Sovereign Lady Queen ANNE, Her Crown and Dignity, and to be out of Her Majesty's Protection; Willing and Requiring all Her Majesty's good Subjects to treat them as such, and as they shall have opportunity to do and execute all Acts of Hostility upon them. And I do strictly forbid all Her Majesties good Subjects to hold any manner of Correspondence or Communication with the said Indians, or to give them any Aid, Comfort, Succour or Relief, as they tender the duty of their Allegiance and on pain of incurring Her Majesties utmost displeasure, and the severest Penalties.

And to the Intent, That none of our Neighbouring Friend Indians may be exposed, or the Enemy escape on pretence of being Friends, I do hereby also strictly forbid any of the said Friend Indians, to move out of their respective Plantations, or such other Places whereto they shall be assigned; or to come into any English Town or District, within the late Colony of the Massachusetts-Bay, or Province of Mayn, without special Order in Writing from My Self, or being attended with such English Man as I shall appoint to Oversee them, at their Peril, and as they tender their own safety, And further I forbid all the Friend Indians, to hold any Communication with, harbour or conceal any of the Enemy Indians, requiring them to seize and secure all such that may come among them, and to deliver them up to Justice.

And all Military Commission Officers are hereby charged and required, strictly to Observe and put in Execution the Directions and Powers, given them in and by the Act Entituled, An Act for putting the Militia of this Province into a readiness for defence of the same; Pass'd by the General Assembly in the Twelfth Year of His late Majesty King William the Third; Since revived and continued by several Acts and now standing in force.

Given at the Council Chamber in Boston the 18th. Day of August 1703. In the Second Year of Her Majesty's Reign.

J. DUDLEY.

God Save the QUEEN.

Falmouth, Nov. 1. This day came in here 4 Dutch Privateers, one of them on the 22d of September retook the Bolton Gally of London which was taken on the 4th by a French Man of War in the Latitude of 43, and who had sent her home; 2 of the rest brought in as Prize the Duke of Burgundy a Privateer of St. Maloes of 18 Guns and 94 Men, which they took near Ushant on the 20th Ult. coming with Fish from Newfoundland.

Harwich, Nov. 6. The Marlborough Pacquet-Boat that sail'd from hence on the 1st instant with 2 Mails for Holland, met on the Coast of Holland with seven French Privateers which chased her back hither. So she came in on the 4th. The last Mail was brought over by a Dutch Vessel which landed it at Yarmouth.

Dublin, October 27. On the 25th Mr. Ludlow (according to Order) reported from the Committee of the whole House appointed to take into consideration his Grace the Lord Lieutenant's Speech, and also the Supply granted to Her Majesty; that they had come to several Resolutions, which he read in his place, and after delivered in at the Table, where the same were again read, and are as follows. Resolved,

1. That it is the Opinion of this Committee, That the Pension of 1200 l. per Annum granted to the Presbyterian Ministers in Ulster, is an unnecessary Branch of the Establishment.
